5	6	Multiple Measures	Adopted 2004	Campus Forum	Reviewed 2017, 2021, 2024
			Revised 2018, 2024	2018	Next review 2026

POLICY

Clover Park Technical College assesses prospective students' skills using multiple measures prior to registering for academic class and some career training programs. These measures are used to place students in appropriate academic and program courses.

Multiple measures for placement include, but are not limited to: SAT/ACT Scores, CASAS Scores, High School Equivalency Exams, College transcripts, High School Transcripts, Smarter Balanced Assessment, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, Cambridge, and Directed Self-Placement assessment. The Testing Center also offers the Pearson Vue GED® high school equivalency exam.

Students requesting CASAS testing are referred to Transitional Studies.

Fees: CPTC does not charge fees for placement assessments. The fee for the high school equivalency test is paid directly to Pearson Vue.
